PREFACE.

"THE VOICE OF PRAISE" REPRESENTS THE HIGHEST ATTAINMENT; OF THE PRESENT AGE, IN THE COMPILATION OF SACRED SONGS FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND PRAISE SERVICES. THE SOLE PURPOSE OF THE EDITORS WAS TO COMBINE QUALITY AND VARIETY. THE QUALITY OF THE SONGS IN THIS BOOK IS THE HIGHEST ATTAINABLE. THE POEMS ARE SCRIPTURAL IN CHARACTER; THE MUSIC EXACTLY SUITED TO THE WORDS. TOGETHER THEY MAKE A HARMONIOUS AND BEAUTIFUL COMBINATION, EASILY LEARNED, LASTING IN USE. THERE IS THE GREATEST VARIETY THAT MONEY AND INTELLIGENCE COULD PRODUCE. EVERY SONG OF IMPORTANCE IS IN THIS COLLECTION. NEARLY EVERY AUTHOR IS REPRESENTED. WE FEEL THAT WE HAVE SUCCEEDED IN COMPILING THE MOST SUITABLE AND USEFUL BOOK, FOR THE PURPOSE, EVER ISSUED.

ARRANGED.

C. AUSTIN MILES.

1. Praise unto thee we sing, Who, only, art the King, Songs we will raise un - to thee this day;
2. Thou who hast trod the road, Thou who hast borne the load Sin laid on thee, who no sin hath known,
3. No earthly crown was thine, O Son of God divine, Yet in our hearts thou shalt reign alone;
4. An - gels before thee now Low-ly in worship bow, We would exalt thee as hosts a - bove;

Save us from earthly woe, Guard us from ev-'ry foe, Lead us a - long our earthly way.
 Hear, as to thee we bow, Seek-ing thy fav - or now, Bend-ing be-fore thy heav'ly throne.
 All shall give place to thee, Nor would we ev - er be Seek-ing a fav - or not thine own.
 Thou, on-ly, art the King, Thy glo - ry we will sing, Thee we would praise for thy great love.

1. Where he may lead me I will go, For I have learned to trust him so,
 2. O I de-light in his command, Love to be led by his dear hand;
 3. On-ward I go, nor doubt nor fear, Hap-py with Christ, my Sav-our, near,

And I re-mem-ber 'twas for me That he was slain on Cal-va-ry.
 His di-vine will is sweet to me, Hallowed by blood-stained Cal-va-ry.
 Trusting that I some day shall see Je-sus, my Friend, of Cal-va-ry.

CHORUS.

Je-sus shall lead me night and day, Je-sus shall lead me all the way;

He is the tru-est Friend to me, For I re-mem-ber Cal-va-ry.

Songs suited to this subject:—Nos. 14, 15, 16, 26, 38, 63, 78, 91. See Topical Index.

LEADER:—And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.—John 10:16.

RESPONSE:—Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country:—Zech. 8:7.

L.—The Gentiles shall come to thy light and Kings to the brightness of thy rising.—Isa. 60: 3-5.

R.—Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

L.—Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

R.—And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness: the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools shall not err therein.—Isa. 35: 8.

L.—And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.—Isa. 35: 10.

R.—How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

L.—And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!—Rom. 10: 14-15.

R.—Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

L.—And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.—John 4: 35-36.

R.—Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.—Mark 16: 15.

No. 237. The Grace of Giving.

Songs suited to this subject:—33, 65, 80.

L.—How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship.—Luke 16: 2.

R.—The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein:—Ps. 24: 1.

L.—The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hosts.—Hag. 2: 8.

R.—Every beast of the field is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. I know all the fowls of the mountains: And the wild beasts of the field are mine.—Ps. 50: 10-11.

L.—A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.—John 3: 27.

R.—Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.—Mal. 3: 8.

L.—Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase.—Prov. 3: 9.

R.—Bring ye all the tithes into the store house, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.—Mal. 13: 10.

L.—For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.—2 Cor. 8: 9.

R.—Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him.—1 Cor. 16: 2.

L.—Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Cor. 9: 7.

R.—Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.—Acts 20: 35.

No. 238. For Decision Day.

Songs suited to this subject:—67, 79, 171, 176, 182.

L.—How long halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him:—1 Kings 18: 21.

RESPONSIVE SCRIPTURE READINGS

R.—Choose you this day whom ye will serve.—Josh. 24: 15.

L.—If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.—Rom. 10: 9.

R.—Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.—Rom. 10: 13.

L.—Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

R.—But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.—Luke 12: 8-9.

L.—Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.—1 John 4: 15.

R.—At the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

L.—And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.—Philip. 2: 10-11.

No. 239. God's Care.

Songs suited to this subject:—10 59, 101, 168.

L.—I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

R.—Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

L.—He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

R.—Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

L.—Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon-day.

R.—A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.—Ps. 91: 2-7.

L.—It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man:

R.—It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.—Ps. 118: 8-9.

L.—Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin:

R.—And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

L.—Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?—Matt. 6: 28-30.

R.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.—Phil. 2: 13.

L.—And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:—Dan. 2: 21.

R.—My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.—Ps. 63: 8.

L.—But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.—Ps. 40: 17.

No. 240. Temperance.

Songs suited to this subject:—78, 86, 100, 121.

R.—Ye that love the Lord, hate evil:—Ps. 97: 10.

L.—Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.—Prov. 20: 1.

R.—Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright:

L.—At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.—Prov. 23: 31-32.

R.—Be not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

L.—For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.—Prov. 23: 20-21.

R.—Because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied.—Hab. 2: 5.

L.—Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!—Hab. 2: 15.

R.—Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

L.—And the harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of his hands.—Isa. 5: 11-12.

R.—It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.—Rom. 14: 21.

L.—Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness.—Rom. 13: 13.

R.—Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things.—1 Cor. 9: 25.

L.—Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:—1 Pet. 5: 8.

No. 241.

Duty.

Songs suited to this subject:—97, 106, 110, 113.

L.—Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth.—Ps. 60: 4.

R.—It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Do all things without murmurings and disputings.—Philip 2: 13-14.

L.—Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.—Eccl. 9: 10.

R.—Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.—Matt. 6: 33.

L.—Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.—Acts 3: 19.

R.—Watch therefore; for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.—Acts 25: 13.

L.—And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.—Luke 6: 31.

R.—Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.—2 Tim. 4: 2.

L.—Pray one for another, * * * the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.—Jas. 5: 16.

R.—Rejoice evermore.

L.—Pray without ceasing.

R.—In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.—1 Thes. 5: 16-18.

No. 242.

Love.

Songs suited to this subject:—18, 51, 103, 116, 178.

L.—We love him because he first loved us.—1 John 4: 19.

R.—For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life.—John 3: 16.

L.—I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.—Jerem. 31: 3.

R.—He that loveth not knoweth not God: for God is Love.—1 John 4: 3.

L.—Herein is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

R.—Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

L.—No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

R.—Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

L.—And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.—1 John 4: 10-14.

R.—My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and truth.—1 John 3: 18.

L.—Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.—Ps. 41: 1.

R.—As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.—Gal. 6: 10.

L.—Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

R.—Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another.—Rom. 12: 9-10.

No. 243. Joy in God's House.

Songs suited to this subject:—21, 48, 49, 56, 94, 172.

L.—And Jacob awaked out of his sleep and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place; and I knew it not.

R.—And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

L.—And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

R.—And he called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of that city was called Luz at the first.—Gen. 28: 16-19.

L.—I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.—Ps. 122: 1.

R.—As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

L.—My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?—Ps. 42: 1-2.

R.—How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

L.—My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

R.—Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.

L.—Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.—Ps. 84: 1-4.

R.—A day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.—Ps. 84: 10.

L.—And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart.

R.—Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.—Acts 2: 46-47.

L.—The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

R.—God is a spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.—John 4: 23-24.

No. 244. Sowing and Reaping.

Songs suited to this subject:—24, 113, 155, 169.

L.—While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.—Gen. 8: 22.

R.—For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

L.—Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.—Isa. 55: 12-13.

R.—We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this the fruit of it.—Num. 13: 27.

L.—Blessed of the Lord be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath.

R.—And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon.—Deut. 33: 13-14.

L.—He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

R.—He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth.—Ps.—104: 13-14.

L.—Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation.—Ps. 68: 19.

R.—And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground.

L.—And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

R.—For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

L.—But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.—Mark 4: 26-29.

R.—The harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.—Matt. 13: 39.

No. 245. Eternal Hope.

Songs suited to this subject:—43, 69, 167.

L.—I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:—Job 19: 25.

R.—I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another.—Job 19: 27.

L.—I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction.—Hos. 13: 14.

R.—If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

L.—But now is Christ risen from the dead, and became the first-fruits of them that slept.

R.—For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

L.—For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.—1 Cor. 15: 19-22.

R.—We know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.—1 John 3: 2.

L.—Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.

R.—In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

L.—For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

R.—So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

L.—O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

R.—The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

L.—But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.—1 Cor. 15: 51-37.

R.—Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.—Ps. 16: 10.

No. 246. The Light of the World.

Songs suited to this subject:—10, 68, 81, 156.

L.—And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.—Gen. 1: 3.

R.—For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.—Mal. 1: 11.

L.—The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.—Isa. 9: 2.

R.—Unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings.—Mal. 4: 2.

L.—The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?—Ps. 27: 1.

R.—Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

L.—For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

R.—And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.—Isa. 60: 1-3.

L.—Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

R.—Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candle-stick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

L.—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.—Matt. 5: 14-16.

R.—For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.—Eph. 5: 8.

L.—Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.—Ps. 23: 4.

R.—And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.—Rev. 22: 5.

No. 247. Rejoicing.

Songs suited to this subject:—12, 42, 49, 163, 165.

L.—Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

R.—Sing unto the Lord with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

L.—With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the Lord, the King.—Ps. 98: 4-6.

R.—The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in the land.—Cant. 2: 12.

L.—I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

R.—His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

L.—They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.—Hos. 14: 5-7.

R.—Consider the lilies of the field how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

L.—And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.—Matt. 6: 28-29.

R.—The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

L.—It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing.—Isa. 35: 1-2.

No. 248. The Lord's Coming.

Songs suited to this subject:—19, 35 61, 99, 153.

L.—In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

R.—And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.—John 14: 2-3.

L.—I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.—John 14: 18.

R.—Who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap.—Mal. 3: 2.

L.—Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.—1 Pet. 1: 13.

R.—To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.—1 Thes. 3: 13.

L.—Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.—Luke 12: 40.

R.—Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.—Heb. 10: 25.

L.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.—Rev. 20: 7.

No. 249. The Holy Spirit.

Songs suited to this subject:—89, 180 193.

L.—And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

R.—And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.—Joel 2: 28-29.

L.—For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring.—Isa. 44: 3.

RESPONSIVE SCRIPTURE READINGS

R.—Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him

L.—He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

R.—These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

L.—But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.—John 14: 23-26.

R.—And ye are witnesses of these things.

L.—And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you.—Luke 24: 48-49.

R.—And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

L.—And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

R.—And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

L.—And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.—Acts 2: 1-4.

R.—Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

L.—But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit:—1 Cor. 2: 9-10.

No. 250. Patriotic.

Songs suited to this subject:—202, 203, 204.

L.—Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.—Ps. 33: 12.

R.—He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves.—Ps. 66: 7.

L.—We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in times of old.—Ps. 44: 1.

R.—Our Father trusted in thee: they trusted and thou did'st deliver them.

L.—They cried unto thee and were delivered: they trusted in thee and were not confounded.—Ps. 22: 4-5.

R.—Thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be special people unto himself above all people that are upon the face of the earth.—Deut. 7: 6.

L.—Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude for the battle is not yours but God's.—2 Chron. 20: 15.

R.—Praise thy God O Zion. For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates, he hath blessed thy children within thee.

L.—He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.—Ps. 147: 13-14.
